

Access to power

The Goal of the Project:

The overarching purpose of the project is to identify regulatory and organizational barriers for grid operators to offer faster grid connections and to reduce connection queues.

The purpose is also to provide policy recommendations that could improve the incentives for better grid utilization.

Expected Result:

Knowledge building and dissemination regarding present and future regulatory framework that applies to electricity distribution and how these could be improved to increase grid utilization.

Project Leader: Mikael Lantz

E-mail: mikael.lantz@miljo.lth.se