

Postmortem analysis: pulse charging effects on electrodes

The Goal of the Project: Investigate the ageing mechanisms occurring on the electrodes when cycled at different frequencies through postmortem analysis with newly develop methods and non-invasive ageing models.

Expected Result: Competence exchange on using the newly developed method for investigating electrode ageing and improved non-invasive ageing models.

Project Leader:

E-mail: